

model form for withdrawal

Notes for use

We are legally bound to offer you the right of withdrawal: the approval period of an order enters into effect at the moment that the ordered items are delivered. We are also required to offer you the opportunity to make your use of this right known to us using a model form. Completing this form is not necessary in order to be able to exercise your right of withdrawal. Returning the items with only the return slip is sufficient. In other words, you are not obliged to use this form if you wish to make a return.
